NATIONAL ENZYME COMPANY ANNOUNCES STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP WITH CHINESE COMPANY WEDAR BIOTECHNOLOGY

Forsyth, MO and Taiwan - National Enzyme Company and Wedar Biotechnology have announced a strategic partnership designed to feature National Enzyme Company's new BioCore® line of enzymes in the Chinese market. Wedar will be featuring NEC's BioCore® line at the upcoming CPhI tradeshow in Shanghai. NEC and Wedar have a history of offering quality products to the Chinese food and nutraceutical markets, since 2005 Wedar has successfully promoted NEC's Nattozimes to customers in both China and Taiwan.

“National Enzyme Company has over 75 years of history. Their strong technical support capability is extremely important when introducing a novel ingredient into China's very regulated market. NEC's quality and service are outstanding and we have chosen to work with NEC so we can offer this same quality and excellent service to our Chinese customers,” said Kevin Hu, president of Wedar Biotechnology.

“We are thrilled to be working with Wedar, this is a wonderful opportunity for both Wedar and NEC to offer Chinese customers high quality and effective enzyme products,” said Grace Yu Wen Lu, international sales and marketing manager for National Enzyme Company.
